

The Brentwood Ursuline Alumnae Society Reunion 2016

On the second Sunday of May this year, over 170 past pupils and staff met in the Chapel for their annual reunion. The guest speaker for the afternoon was the Editorial Director of Good Housekeeping magazine, Lindsay Nicholson. The theme of her talk was 'Duty' and she recalled the expectations made of her and fellow students when attending the school, taking these experiences through life to meet the daunting personal challenges she had to face. Lindsay was absolutely superb, giving a highly entertaining, affecting and inspiring talk. Judging by all the comments received, everyone thoroughly enjoyed that!

Most decades from the 1940s through to 2010 were represented and enjoyed afternoon tea in the dining hall, walking into old classrooms or visiting the newer Merici Sports Hall. Marian Mann (Chairperson) welcomed Miss Vicky Squirrell (retired Headteacher) as President of the Alumnae Association and encouraged all members to follow the Alumnae on Facebook.

Thankyou to the students and staff who organised the afternoon: Sophie Pether, Millie Binnell, Gabriella Adams, Mrs A Corless, Mrs T Mullen, Mrs B Guler and Miss C Bailey.
